Create a Winning Resume

- Losing sleep over your job search?
- Revising your resume again?
- Spending most of your time researching job boards?
- Having difficulty explaining why you are in career transition?
- Interviewing with countless employers only to be rejected again?

In today's job market, you need more than a resume listing your past work history. You need marketing tools that articulate your unique value, achievements, accomplishments, strengths, and talents. How people perceive you determines the value of what you can deliver in the workplace. You only get one chance to make a good first impression and influence people's perceptions.
